August, 2015 Newsletter

Welcome back to school, everyone! After a couple of years of fast changes, things are leveling out here. I'm done raising prices, and this year's calendar is open. With a new promotional, one-on-one lessons could be as low as $45 / hr at the office or $75 / hr at your home.

Fall Semester Rates & Availabilities

My fall semester dates are Monday, Aug. 24 – Sunday, Dec. 20.

House calls (5-mile radius), base rate* $90 / hr = Mon & Thu pm

Office / online, base rate* $60 / hr = Tue all day, Sat – Sun pm

Open walk-in hours = $32 / hr, billed per ¼ hr, Tue pm, Sat pm, Sun pm

Consultations = Mon am, Thu pm

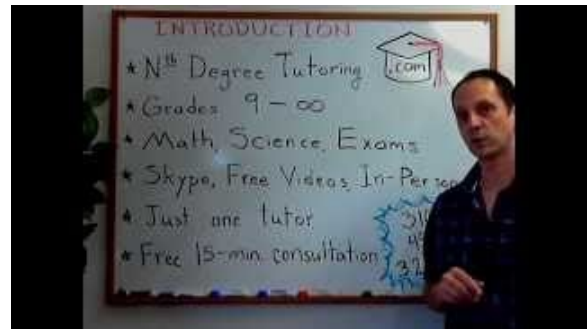

No vacations except Thanksgiving weekend

* Add $10 / hr to base rates for lessons that are not pre-paid.

 Please note that weekend walk-in hours are subject to reservation for particular group classes. It's best to check the calendar before coming in. If you reserve a walk-in appointment with pre-payment, I will hold it open for you.

Skype me from College!

Don't forget that I am available on Skype, for those of you who will be off to college. Whiteboard webcam lessons come at the same time and price as office lessons.

Free Lecture Video Requests

On a related note, my YouTube channel is now up and running (access through main website). I am recording a series of 5 – 15 minute lectures. If you have a question about a particular topic that would be appropriate for a video of this length, I will post one free video presentation per week.
